BON MARCHE

Lansburgh & Bro

It's Going to Be Cold Thera's no way of evading it. Now, you might as well be prepared. Whether it gets co der surely be cold. Bed covering is needed first of all.

18-4 white and gray Finnkets, with fancy 59° Pair

80° Pair 11-4 white Blankets, il size, for a double 11-4 white Blankets, full size, for a double bed, with ruse-rejected

11-1 white Blankets, full size, extra beary, with blue, plat and red borders $1.40 Pair

114 gray Blankets, full state and extra $1.50 Pair

10-4 Silver Gray Blank- $2.00 Pair.

11-4 White Bankets, extra heavy, with blue, $3.50 pair.

BED SPREADS and BED COMFORTS from the cheaper goods up to the very finest made. We have some SPECIAL FINE SPREADS, BLANK- V ETS and EIDERDOWN COMFORTS that would make such acceptable and sensible Wedding Presents.

All Packages

Delivered in BROOKLAND, ALEXANDRIA, and BRIGHT-WOOD daily, and tri-weekly 420, 422, 424, 426 7th St.

S. KANN,

8th & Market Space.

UNION SUITS

For Ladies, Misses, and Children, made of the Best Quality MACO YARN, silk stitched and pearl buttons stitched and pearl buttons. and spirits. That sets, chance has not yet become used to her liberty is evidenced by the fact that when a friend met her out riding recently and remonstrated with her because she wore no cent ever her linen shirt waist in the chill of the evening, she said "Oh, that's all right. But if lick were here he wouldn't allow it." We have the entire line on sale. No disappointment, like some others that have advertised them and did not have them in stock.

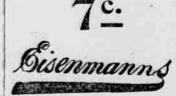

98c. Quality, 47c.

S. Kann, Sons

8th and Market Space.

For Tuesday ONLY!

500 Ladies' Large Size Gingham Aprons, worth

806 Seventh St. N.W. 1924-1926 Penna. Ave.

Feel Badly To-day?

Brown's

Bitters

DYSPEPSIA. KIDNEY AND LIVES
NEURALGIA, THOUSLES.
CONSTIPATION, IMPURE BLOOD, MALARIA.
WOMEN'S COMPLAINTS.
Get only the genuine—it has crossed red lines on the wrapper.
BROWN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORE, MB. Toronomonomonomonomono

The Earth Trembled.

The shock passed away and the world

Cloaks and .

from the Paris and New York markets in astonishing profusion. Every novelty you will find here, $7.48 Silk Waists, $4.98.

Elegant Foulard Silk Waists, in variety of patterne, stripes and digured effects, very large melen sleeves, with turnback relvet collar skit relect collar Regular price $5.43 Special. $4.98 $1.98 Tea Gowns, $1.49.

715 Market Space.

Bessie Stewart, Miss May Belle Stewart, Mrs. Belgnap, Mr., and Mrs. Ward Tharon, Mrs. N. S. Lincoln, Mrs. and Miss Ander-son, Mr. and Mrs. Covarrabias, Mrs. Eagher, Mr. and Mrs. Endicott, Mrs. and the Misses Steele, Mrs. Phil Sheridan, Mr. rounger members of the Diplomatic corps to form a club face. The plan has not as yet taken delinne simps, but negotiations have been opened for the leasing of a Louse for this purpose in the instinguise quarter George Hellen, Mr. Lee Philips, Mrs. and the Misses Mendonca were among the guests at the Payson wedding yesterday. One of the prettiest gowns seen this fall was that worn by Mrs. Dick Townsend at the Payson Le than weeding yesterday. It was a combination of black and whate in

The Alumni Reading Circle of Notre Dane had its seesni meeting of the sca-son last night in the commencement half of the Convent of Notre Dame. North Capi-tol and K streets northeast.

An interesting feature of the evening was the distribution among members, for of Avon being the present subject of study by the club.

The programme included papers on "The Dawn of Roman Art" and "A Queen's Vic-tory," both read effectively by Miss Mary Landale and Miss Kalherine Ready.

coording secretary.
Miss Ready, Miss McGowan, and Miss Kingston represent the literary committee. The fiext meeting will take place in the convent hall on November 11.

Mrs. John L. Cox. of 1413 Eighth street northwest, returned after a visit to Fred-ricksburg, Va. where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Harrison. Miss Miss Alice Irwin, of Capitol Hill, left yesterday morning for an extended visit to relatives in Pennsylvania.

It was Mr. and not Mrs. Chanler it seems who pracured the divorce on the ground of described. Mr. Chanler is at present traveling in the West but will return before or the han table was need with general ored Chrysanthemans, while either side the bay window, which was seteened with viens and paims, a huge bouquet of white chrysanthemanns, tied with broad white sat in sash tribbons, was effectively the city and has leased a house on Massa-chuseits avenue.

wan Mr. Le Guait and Count de Buisscret, his best man. The long, white saim rib-bons, which formed the male, were held aside by Mr. W. F. Payson, of New York, and Mr. F. L. Payson, of this city, cousins of the bride. the usbers are Mr. Paris Brengle, Mr. Will Starnell, Mr. Vernon Hedges, Mr. Perton Gordon, Mr. Francis Stephens, and Mr.

The brale was escorted by her father,

Air. Charles Payson, who gave her away.

Air. Charles Payson, who gave her away.

She is a young woman of striking appearance, with dark eyes and hair, eight olive complexion and graceint figure, and her wedding gown, of heavy white satin, en traine, with rail veil of talle, caught with orange biosnoms, was most becoming. She carried a bouquet of titles of the vancy. The maid of honor stood at the right of the embowered window, the best man at tion of vows.

Among the guests of the house were Mr. Francis Payson, of New York, uncle of the bride, and Miss Ethel Robeson, daughter of the late Secretary Robeson.

All the representatives of the diplomatic corps in Washington were present and a number of the local smart set. The gathering numbered sixty and was one of the most brilliant ever known here. One bundred invitations only were sent out. dred invitations only were sent out.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Le Ghait left for the Cards for the marriage of Miss Irene Langhorne, of Richmond, who has many triends here, to Mr. Charles Dana Gibson, friends here, to Mr. Charles Dana Gibson, the noted artist, of New York, will occur November 7. Extensive preparations are in progress to make this the most beautiful wedding that has ever taken place in the South. St. Paul's Church chancel, in Richmond, will be arranged in horseshoe shape and palms and flowers will form a bower in which the bride and groom will exchange their vows. Two young sisters of the bride, in frocks of white silk, Gainsborough hais, and carrying chrysanthemems, will act as flower girls.

Six young women, her frieuds, will act

The bride will be gowned in an imported The bride will be gowned in an imported wedding costume of white satin, with conventional talle veil and diamonds, and will carry lilles of the valley and white violets. Souvenirs of the occasion will be penricrescent pins to the bridesmaids and gold horseshoe pins to the groomsinen.

A breakfast to one hundred friends will follow, and Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will leave later for the North. They expect to sail November 23 for Gibraitar and Egypt, not returning to Americs, for a year.

Among the Washington people who will go down for the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll

Miss Bernice M. Kennard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kennard, and Bradley A. Snyder were married Wednesday evening last at 5:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Todd, of Hankine M. E. Church. The bride's dress was h-brown novelty, trimmed in brown satin and passementerie.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 28.—The marriage of Mr. Charles A. L. Massie, of Washington, and Miss Geradine Rose Carrathers, of this city, took place at St. John's Episcopal Church this evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles H. Strong, assisted by the cousin of the groom, Rev. Mr. Massic, a missionary to China. Mr. Edward S. Elliott, of this city, was best man.

Edward S. Elliott, of this city, was best man.

The marriage was quite an eventful one in society. The bride is highly accomplished and popular, and is gifted with a magnificent soprano voice. The groom is a member of the well-known family of Virginia Massies unit practices law at the Capital.

After a reception, at the home of the bride's mother, which was attended by a large number of seelety people, the couple left for Atlanta.

Miss Mamie M. Rogers, of East Capitol street, will tender in reception Tuesday night to the members of the Belping Hand Club, a temporary association, organized for the purpose of donating and making a box of clothing for the Christmas poor, regardless of sect or race. The clab numbers eight young ladies—Misses Mamie and Sadie Rogers, Miss Nettle Spaiding, Miss Belle Omstead, Miss Laurie Baker, Miss Netlie Boyle and Misses Kate and Rita Bell. The eight honorary members are Mr. Frank eight homorary members are Mr. Frank Q. Howard, Mr. Miles Brown, Mr. Fred S. Barnes, Mr. Harry Boyle, Mr. Lawson Reed, Mr. F. D. Boyle, Mr. Thomas F. Murray and Mr. Edward Barnes,

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Tucker, of New Jersey avenue, have returned from a brief visit to Cape May and Atlantic City.

Miss Kate Ashby, of Charleston, S. C., is visiting her college mate, Miss Nettie Bar-ker, of Capitol Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Brown, of South Washington, will heave to-morrow for a orier visit to relatives in Norfolk, Va. Mr. P. A. Barnes is spending his vacation in Montreal, Canada.

Mr. J. Ambler Smith and family have returned from Takema, and are settled for the winter in their home, No. 1418 Q street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, of Portland, Oreg., will spend the winter at the Concord

Miss Alice Owings, of K street, will not return from Boltimore until after the Thanksgiving holdays. Commodore Thomas O. Selfridge and wife are established at the Everett for the win

Miss Jersey Moran, of Elizabeth, N. J., the guest of Miss Rose Baily, of Capitol

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Simmons, who are visiting the parents of Mrs. Simmons in Mauch chunk, Pa., will not return until November 15.

The friends of Mr. Walter Thompson, of Seventh street northeast, will be giad to learn that he is convalescing from his re-cent illness.

Miss Agnes F. Callaham, of New Jersey venue, will give a reception this evening o introduce her cousin, Miss Lucy B. Hill, f Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Roberta Stone will leave Wednesday for the Atlanta exposition. With her aunt. Mrs. Rebecca Stone, of Bultimore, she will epitrelativesin South Carolina and Alabama, returning home about December 1, by way of Baltimore, where she will remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Evn McCall is visiting friends in Pittaburg, Pa., whore she will remain until after Thanksgiving week, when she will accompany her brother, Mr. J. F. McCall, on a brief trip touthe Arlanta exposition.

Dr. Abbie C. Tyler, who has been visiting her mother in Warren, Mass. has re-turned to her home, No. 461 Third street northwest.

"The Serenaders" were entertained last Friday night by Miss Bezinh Carpenter at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Francis B. Carpenter, of Maryland avenue south-to a conce.

Among the "Scrennders" and their friends were Miss Augusta Baker, Miss Maggie Watson, Miss Mary Ellen Ferguson, Miss Bessie Stoll, Miss Irene Logers, and Messes. John Carpenter, Ralph Morgan, Frederick Watson, John Makel, Frank Sturges, Willie P. Johnson, and Walter Stoll.

Miss Cora Frank, of No. 417 Third street northwest, is home from her visit to the East.

Miss Jessica Fallon will leave Saturday morning for an indefinite visit to rela-tives in Harper's Ferry, W. Va.

Mr. Hogh O'Beirne, secretary of the British legation, is at the Cochran for the among the guests present at the Payson Le-Ghait wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. M. King are, receiving

Invitations are out from the Japanese minister for a dinner to be given early in November.

botel in Pittsburg, Pa., and to his amazement found himself the recipient of most assiduous attentions from members of the press. Journalistic circles in his neighborhood were at once greatly agitated as to the nood were at once greatly agitated as to the reason for the appearance of a diplomat in the Smoky City, and despite his denials, rumors became current that he had come to inspect, on behalf of his government, the armor-making plants; again that he was about to found an important consulate of the Mexican legation, and others of an equally unfounded and sensational char-acter.

These One-hour Sales Bring Thousands of wise, keen buyers, who know that the prices quoted are abnormal, unmistakably so. The truth is that were business what it should be at this time of year such prices and such sales would be out of the question. We are simply forcing business-compelling you to buy-but there's scant

TO-DAY'S SALES.

9 to 10 a. m.

WHITE AND BUTTER Oriental, Venice, and net top Laces-very beautiful patterns. Regular price, 25c to 35c-only 5 yards to each buyer-for this hour per yard 120

MEN'S SILK GARTERS-Brigh-

LOCK BRACELETS-gold and silver plated-very pretty designswe always sell them at 75c-not more than 2 to a purchaser-for this hour 36c

10 to 11 a.m.

LADIES' VESTS-High neckslong sleeves-ribbed. Regular price, 19c-only 2 to a buyer-for

LADIES' INITIAL HANDKER-CHIEFS - white - hemstitched. Regular price, 121/2c-for this hour 80

PERCALINE-Black and all colors -regular 12 1-2c value-not more than 5 yards to a buyer-for this

3 to 4 p. m.

LADIES' BLACK SATTEEN SKIRTS, 2 ruffles. Regular price, 98c-one only to a buyer-for this hour...... 69c JET EDGINGS for dress -trimmings, pretty patterns-8 and 10c value-5 yards to a buyer-for this hour per yard 40

WOODWORTH PERFUMESbring your bottle-for this hour

_15c Bottle Bay Rum-for this hour 15c Bottle Florida Water-for this 12c Bottle Witch Hazel-for this hour 15c WHISK BROOMS-for this

4 to 5 p. m.

MEN'S SHIRTS AND DRAWERS Derby ribbed-in tan and blue-$1 value-only 2 suits to a buyer -for this hour___

MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS, plain white and colored border-regular 17c quality-only 3 to a buyer -for this hour

LADIES' KID GLOVES-all the new fall shades-large buttonheavy embroidery - regular $1 value-only one pair to a customer-for this hour 570

CLOTH CAPS and Tam o'Shanters for boys, misses and children -all colors-worth from 25c to 48c-for this hour.....

Bon Marche,

314, 316 Seventh Street Northwest.

514 9th St. N. W.

490, Medium Weight in Children's Ecclers, 41012 years. Worth $1.30 St. 39. Heavy-weight Children's Re-fers, cnryst, see 4 to 14, all colors. Worth $3, cnryst, 59. 1210. Boys' Percals Shirt Walst. Worth Frices advert sed in Sunday Times.

Oppenheimer's

514 9th St.N. W.

WILLIAM LEE UNDERTAKER.

112 Pennsylvania avenue northwe First cless service Phone 1316

Interment at Stratford, Westmorehald County, Va., on Wednesday, October 16, 1t-em

BOOTH—Sunday, October 27, 1895, at 3:30 p. m., Minnie Mabel Booth, daugh-ter of John L. and the late Emma Booth. Funeral at 2:30 Thesday from residence, 110 C st. ne. Friends invited.

THE RINK CHAMBER SUITES

OI

The above cut represents a Solid Oak Chamber Suite, polish finish, 30x24 French Beveled Plate Mirror, a suite usually sold for $25.00. The Rink's price-two days-$18.50. Our stock of finer Chamber Suites in Mahogany, Curly Birch, and Oak unsurpassed in variety, beauty, and lowness of price. If in need of a cheap, medium, or fine suite don't fail to look over our stock.

CASH OR CREDIT The Julius Lansburgh Furniture and Carpet Co

GOOD NEWS.

We have just received a car load of the finest New York Burbank Potatoes, which we will sell at 15c. per peck, or 50c. per bushel. best butter, per lb..... Emrich's Purity; cannot be equaled, per lb..... EMRICH BEEF CO.

Main Market, I306-1312 32d St. N.W. Telephone 347.

30c

20c

medicine, which is frown's from Bitters. Penefit comes from he very first dose. IT CURES formation of rock which the quake had re-"The earth is not what it is cracked up to be."—New York World. Millinery

Pretty Weather Has Filled the Streets With New Equipgaes.

meSmart Traps and Well Appointed

This is the season when all society can e met to a tour through the suburbs, riding, driving, walking, or cycling along the country roads. From directly after breakfast until dusk, the bucolic repulation are treated to a glimpse of gay equipages, impressive Jenus, and beautiful women, as brilliant as the automa fol inge in the bewildering mass of color they

· Mrs. McLean, sr., and her family con-tingent; Mrs. Buguer, Mrs. Hazen, and Mrs. John B. McLean tave undoubtedly the most perfectly appointed traps in town, pages, and it is characteristic of them that they do not try new carriers with pages, and it is characteristic of them that mey do not try new carriages with every change in fastion, but very sensibly keep them in use until too shabby to admit of further "doing over." The carriage of the Japanese minister has been in use for quite twelve years, and it is still one of the handsomest in the city.

There is a movement on foot among the velvet and wool, the charasse being of civet and the in mense sleeves of striped wool. With it Mrs. Townsend were a las-cinating little grey bonnet, the effect of which, against her bleade bair, was very

Senator Weimere and his family will re-main at their Newport villa undi a week or so before the assembling of Congress, when they will take possession or their home, the former residence of Vice President Morton, which is now being put in

Judge John Davis returned Saturday from his summer vacation spent attroad, mostly in France. General and Mrs. Disper were passengers on the same steamer. At last advices Mrs. and Miss Davis had celerrained to spend the winter in Paris.

Some Washington men who have recently with the country squires.

Mrs. William Windom has returned to Miss Mattle Cock will be maid of henor, and the bridesmans are Miss Karbryn Jaquette, Miss Plossie Ellis, Miss Bertie Reichenbard, Miss Nellie Friebus, Miss Mamie Arth, and bersister, Miss Mamie Cock.

Mr. John Armstrong will be best man and Will Prentiss.

The brace will wear white saifn dochesse, garlanded with orange blassons. Her tule veil will be bent by the same flowers and pearls, and she will carry bride roses fied with a saim bow. Her maid of bener will be gowned in white organide over white ne gowned in white ergandie over white satin and carry white chrysantheniums tied with streamers of white. The bridesmants will te macry attored except that their sasties and flower ribbons will vary, the colors being blue, yellow and plak. The teremony will be followed by a reception at the house for relatives of both families and the bridal party, only, after panities and the bridal party, only, after which Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will leave for a trip to the North. Upon their return they will reside at No. 1629 Connecticutt avenue, where, after November 15th, they

Mr. and Mrs. De Forrest Jennings, of Glen Echo, were given a surprise tin wed-ding party last night by a number of Wash-ington friends in honor of the tenth anniversary of their marriage. Each guess presented to their host and Lostess a gift

The marriage of Miss Littlepage, and Mr. McCauley, of this city, will take place at Saint Andrews P. E. Chorch, Wednesday evening, November 20th. Cards have not yet been issued.

Baron von Ketteler, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Olney, the French Ambassa-dor and Mrs. Patenotre, the Italian am-bassador, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs.

attect this year.

Teams That Grace the Avenues.

Notes and Personals.

CORSETS.

book class, ex-tremely long waist, sik em-briderededging -strangly boned. White

Sizes from 18 to Regular $1.00 75c

Handsome Tea Gown, made of heavy flaunchette, with solid cashmere yokes to match, full Watteau backs, large sleenes, fluished with suffa Regular price, $1.35, Special. $1.49

future analysis, of the prominent charac-ters in the tirm act of "Hamilet," the bard

The officers of the circle for the coming year are. Mas Mary O'Neill, president, Miss M. O'Drien, vice president, Miss Admic Ready, treasurer, Miss B. Schaefer, cor-responding secretary, and Miss M. Waishe.

Lillie Cox will return this week.

The marriage of Miss Jeannette Payson, to acr. Knymood Le thatt, secretary of the Belgian legation, occurred at moon yesterday at the home of the bride, No. 1439 K street northwest. The handsome drawing rooms were embowered in smilax, palms, and ferns, and fringed chrysanthenoums were the first of some months at the place he has bought near the home of his former wife. Mr. Chanler is very popular in that vicinity, and a leading spirit in the hunts which is the popular form of armsement.

Miss Annie Estelle Cock, daughter of Mr.
Alfred Cock. and Mr. William Spencer Armstrong, son of Dr. W. J. Armstrong, of this city, will be married Wednesday even ing, at 8 o'clock, at the Western Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Howard Wilbur Emis.
Miss Mattie Cock.

of the bride.

Preceding, her sister, Miss Frances Pay-son, emercal, gowines in goal-colored cut fon, organizated with goal-colored satin ribbons and carrying yellow chtysaothe the left, during the impressive solemnizaavenue, where, after November 15th, they will be at home on Toesdays throughout the season to their friends.

Among the relatives from other cities who will attend the wedding will be Lieut, and Mrs. M. M. McNamee, of Fert Sill, Okiahoma Territory; Lieut, and Mrs. A. B. Foster, of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Ause Murphy and her brother, Mr. Will Murphy, of San Jose, Cal.; Mrs. Barbara Lemman, of York, Par.; Mr. Al. Regers, of New York; Mr. Michael Hoffman and his sens, Mr. Michael Hoffman, ir., and Mr. Al. Heifman, of Baltimore. orth and will sail November 2 for Europe.

presented to their host and fictiess a gitt in tin as a souvenir of the happy occasion and there was a generous hamper provided to add to the general surprise.

Among the guests were Mrs. Ridley, Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Gillette, Mrs. Bradley, Miss Kathrine Bradley, Miss Marie Bradley, Miss Cera Bullymore, Mr. Allen A. Warfield, Dr. Richard Gitson, Mr. B. F. Judson, Mr. Gorden Hooker, and Mr. Edward Bradley. Six young women, her friends, will act as bridesmaids, wearing yellow taifeta and chiffon gowns, black Gainsborough hats and carrying yellow chrysanthemums. There will be nine ushers, and Langdon Gibson, brother of the groom, will be best Miss May Gordon, of No. 21 K street northwest, will be married to Mr. Andrew J. Schwartz, Of No. 16 I street northwest, and Nellie Carrer, Alles Miggie harrows, and Miss Verge Jones, all friends of the troubadouts, who numbered seven young them. After a programme of well-rendered gless and soles Mr. John Jefferson seated himself at the pinno and played a walte that at once changed the concert to a donce. Among the "Server".

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payson and Miss Frances Payson will sail from New York November 8, to be absent in Paris some

Baron Fava, Italian ambassador, left for New York this afternoon, He was

Senor Hurtado, Colombian minister, has left Washington for Rome to visit his Rear Admiral Shufeldt, U.S. N., who has or some time been quite ill, is convalescing A recent experience of Edmundo Plaza, second secretary of the Mexican legation, is affording annusement to society. Mr. Plaza lately registered at a fashionable

The fact of the presence of hisfiancee, Miss Rogers, at her home in Pittsburg, was, of course, the solution of Mr. Plaza's prob-

Marriage Licenses.
Licenses to marry have been issued as follows:
George Gibson and Alice Mills.
Thomas H. Sprinkle, of Charlotte, N. C., and Mary D. Reeve.
Jesse E. Boyton and Leah Green.
Charles F. Melran and Mary Voke, both of Louisa county, Va.
Edward Johnson and Ella Cheatham.
George Foyce and Annie Miller,
Richard Patterson and Alice Corbail.
E. C. Staton, of Pocahentas, Va., and celle T. Cocke, of Jackson, Louisa county, Va.

Va.

J. W. Kidwell and Florence Marcey, both of Alexandria codorf, Va.
James L. Brockland Lucretia Hughes.
Isanc Anderson, of East Saginaw, Mich.,
and Dora J. Enrber.
Howard Marshall and Mollie McClennan.
John W. Wortten and Martin Humphrey.

We will call for certain number of sales lickets every day, so be sure and get your slip and take care of it.

UNDERTAKERS.

CLEMONS—On October 28, at her residence, 629 Florida ave, ne., Alice Eugenia, beloved wife of Dr. P. H. Clemons, aged forty-four years.

Fiberariat 3 p. m. Toesday.

(Los Angeles, Cal., and Sandosky, Obio, papers please copy.)

MACKWOOD—October 27, at his faither's residence, B35 6 street southwest, Henry P. Mackwood.

Funeral from Grace Episcopal Church, Ninth and D. streets southwest, October 30, at 1 p. m. Friends and acquaminances respectfully invited to attend.

HOWARD—Suddenly, on Monday, October 14, 1895, at 2 a. m. in the forty-first year of her age, Barah A., beloved wife of Thomas E. Howard, at 404 8th st. sw.

Interment at Stratford, Westmorehad

VERNAN—Annie Marie Vernan, aged ninety years, three months, at 2 o'clock p. m., October 28, 1895, mother of Mrs. John F. Atzel. Funeral services will take place at 1219 New York avenue northwest at 2 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, October 30, 1895. Relatives and friends are invited.

THOMPSON—Della Thompson, aged eleven years, October 27, 1895, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Berry.
Gone, but not forgotten.
Lonely are our hearts to darly.
For the one we loved so dearly Has forever passed away.